Committee Reports

Equipment: (Jim)

- It will be discussed in New Business.

Movie Committee: (Dave)

- The next movie committee meeting will be next week, so let's plan on it being after the first show of Brave (Friday, October 12th, 2012) when everyone is done working.

Old Business

Autism Awareness: Movie for Autistic Children (Dave)

- Ellie from Wells Fargo put me in contact with the Copper Country Awareness group. They are looking at the film library in Marquette, where there are movies that are applicable for the event. The comment of a safe environment being provided for the children related to having family and friends that are used to and accepting of autistic children. This will keep a comfortable environment if any of the children have a problem throughout the event. Basically we are providing a judgment free chance to see a movie. They are currently looking into a date and movie but it will be sometime in the winter.

Iffy Glasses (Jim)

- Last meeting we got two racks finished for the next time we do a 3D movie.
- On this Thursday around 7pm can we have people show up to check glasses? We can have the preview after that at 9 or 9:30 PM since there will be people volunteering for the GLBTQ movie anyways.

Triangle Fraternity

- (Heyse) They wanted tickets and concessions. This is only done on extremely rare occasions so I made purple tickets. This does not mean that they get a discount but that they get a ticket where the ticket price and concessions are together. I was thinking of making this as a gift thing called the Silver pass so that people can give them away as gifts. You know something that looks cool. We could even say that it is like a 5 dollar thing so people have 2 dollars in concession. What should this awesome prize card be?
- (Shannon) I would do the five dollar thing and if they don't use it all they lose the rest.
- (Craig) Then it makes it a flat 5 dollar thing when people pay.
- (Heyse) I will bring a template into the next meeting.
- (Shannon) Can it have a pony on it?
- (Heyse) Only if it has Shannon saying "That's My Pony!"

Any other old business?

- None

New Business

3D Movie: Glasses Washer (Joel)

- (Heyse) I am going to propose that we show brave in 3D for either the film board or the tech students (Sunday, October 14TH, 2012). I want to show this so that we can keep a routine of showing 3D movies throughout the semester. We usually do 3D in the beginning of each semester and forget to check equipment during the down time.
- (Dave) We could show it to the film board only as an incentive for students to join Film Board.
- (Craig) What if we do it as a friends and family thing instead?
- (Napoleon) What if we do it as a preview thing?
- (Heyse) We are trying to get the dishwasher working so we should do it as a Sunday thing to have more time. Also the touch screen should be up and running by then.
- (Shannon) So is this a test run kind of thing?
- (Heyse) Yeah, so do I need a motion to check to see if our license last that long?
- (Dave) Does it cost anything to get the license for longer? I will email marry to see if it cost anything.

Daily Bull Advertising (Shannon)

- (Shannon) John B. is the editor and chief of the bull and is discussing an advertising venture with us currently. He showed me the price of advertising in the Daily Bull which is about the same price as have a slide. We would show there slide in exchange for an advertisement in every Wednesday's paper. Every time we would have a big weekend we could also have the ability to have a crossword in the paper relating to that movie. The crosswords price would be about $35 and in exchange for this we would provide 12 free movie tickets to the Daily Bull for that movie. 12 tickets are about $36 dollars even though the crossword is $35. I don't know what you guys think about this or if it is a good idea. We were thinking we could try it out this semester and if works out well then we will continue it.
- (Dave) All right there is a motion on the table.
- (Shannon) Motion to try this out for a semester.
- (Craig) Seconded.
- (Dave) Hand Vote, Motion Passed, Sustained.

New Member

- (Dave) Motion that Yi get into the movie for free this weekend and we vote for membership next week.
- (Someone) Seconded.
- (Dave) Hand Vote, Motion Passed, Sustained.

Any other new business?

- No other new business
